the 1st Division first receipt enclosed. There will be a list of items. I am occupied from the 1st Division and hope to be for the 1st Division of 1st Div.

Your letter sometime back was received & immediately went in search of your tin, I found lying in the N.Y. rail-road Depot 99 Bets, of which 10 were in bad order, I shipped the 90 Bets by river & advised you of the shipment by mail which has never reached you, I made additional inquiries and find that the Barge which contains the tin has not left our dock yet. it not having enough freight to complete its load but will probably leave in a day or two. The R.R. Co. refuses to have the two Bets repaired they having received them in their present condition, shall I send them repaired & forward to you Very Respectfully

Surgeon Genl

Sir

Your Communication directing me to appear before the Med Exr Board convened in the City of Richmond has been received. In response I beg leave to call your attention to the fact that I have now served nearly three years in the Capacity of Asst Surgeon in the U. S. A. Not I trust without some equivalent to the service and as I have the proud consolation of knowing with the unanimous approval of my superiors with whom I have been thrown, as evidenced by repeated unsolicited recommendations for my promotion to full Surgeon.

Notwithstanding this I cannot at my time of life having followed my profession for some eight & twenty years to say nothing of sacrifices made reconcile it to myself to be subjected to such ordeal for the sake of position in the Army. As such allow me to say that I respectfully decline the invitation to appear before the Board and with it tender my

I respectfully recommend 2nd Lieut. Thos. P. Branch of Branch Field Artillery for promotion to 1st Lieutenant for his superior skill & gallantry - In the discharge of Camp & Company duties I know no young officer his superior for efficiency, industry, and success. In action his courage and intrepidity are most remarkable.
In the engagement at Malvern Hill he found one of his guns entirely destroyed, and under a most terrific fire from the enemy's Gun Boats and Field Artillery went to a neighboring Battery (which was also destroyed) proceeded, threw his gun, and alone recovered it to the rear without assistance.
At Sharpsburg he was specially complimented for his gallantry.
At the first Battle at Fredericksburg he was absent in Petersburg in detached service, hearing an engagement was imminent he hurried to his Co. and to reach it in good time walked some 13 miles through the snow with bare feet, and March 11th 1863.

Genl. A. Cooper,

Adj. to Insp. Genl.

Sir:

By the promotion of Major Branch, 1st Branch's Light Artillery, Capt. P. Brown comes to command. This is right, but I beg to recommend for promotion to the position of first Lt. Smith in the Battery. 1st Lt. P. Brown - he is comparatively superior to either of the other Lieuts. & the battles of Sharpsburg & Fredericksburg were displayed extraordinary gallantry, for which I particularly mentioned him in my report of the last named battle.

Very respectfully,

Yr. Obedt. Servt.

Granting this, it is an evidence of the looseness and assumption of authority by Comdg. Generals in the west, in confirming appointments upon officers, which under the constitution is devolved upon the Executive alone, and therefore wholly illegal, and should not be countenanced by high authority in order to legalize their acts. In my judgment there is no better way to stop this assumption of authority on the part of commanders than by refusing to confirm their acts." (1-158-42; 1-34-75; Report A. G.)

I have rescinded the order for the Reserves to assemble ~~from~~ ^{at} Morgan-ization & Equipment, & directed that they report at once at Leota as you direct. The Companies now here will move at once for that point, the others as soon as the orders reach them.
In consequence of the interruption of the mail, & the many points, where the Reserves are doing duty as supporting forces, where there are Telegraph Offices, many Companies will reach this point without seeing the order to report at Leota, such will be forwarded at once.

All Inspectors return represent them in a very deplorable condition, destitute almost of all equipment, both for travel & houses the latter without doors. My Brigade headquarters will be at Acorba by Dec 10.

From all appearances there will be a large accumulation of business from the Reserve Forces for the Military Courts of the Department. When I conferred with you, in regard to the trial of offenders from the Reserve Forces, you remarked if there was a large accumulation of business before the District Court Martial you would detail a Special Court for the Reserve. I bring this matter to your notice & ask your instructions in regard to the course, I shall take with the Prisoners from the Reserve Forces. Shall I refer them up with the charges & specifications, or will you order a Special Court for the Reserve?

I have the honor to be, very Respt-

Yours,

In view of the probability arrived of a portion of the Veterans at this point, in a few days, I deem it expedient to re-sent to you, the necessity of immediate provision being made for their subsistence while here.

I am informed, that there is no corn here at all, & that a supply will have to be obtained from points north or south of this. As the Rail Road below, will not be in running order for ten days - none can be looked for, from that source in time to meet the emergency. It will therefore, have to be obtained from abroad.
I notified the Comdr. of the Post here of the need for procuring them here & requested that provision be made for the subsistence of twenty five hundred each man, with horses -

General
I have incidentally heard, that Judge Brown, the President of this Rail Road, stated, that the Company would cease to run the trains on the Mobile & Ohio Rail Road unless closing that terminus of this course should be taken it will be impossible for me to conduct the business of conscription at this point, as the negroes that are being forwarded & the numerous persons reporting here would require transportation. It would be very inconvenient to me & cause great delay in the business of imprisonment of negroes & conscription for me to be forced to move my hotel - as well as cause great expense & inconvenience to the many employees of the Bureau of Conscription. I hope you will exercise your authority, & prevent this discontinuance of the running of the trains, before

Sir,

It is with extreme regret I announce to you the death of Asst Surgeon S. Brandt of the 21st Maine Infantry. His death was produced by strangulated crural Hernia. On Sunday last, pain and straining excited, a portion of the colon was protruded, and became strangulated. Every means that could be used were resorted to by Drs. Thurston and Herndon for its reduction, but failed. On Tuesday, about 12 o'clock, I was called in, and with the assistance of Dr. Herndon operated, but it was too late for his relief. In the death of Dr. Brandt, the service has lost a most valuable and competent officer, and the public an estimable citizen.

Dear Sir

I am informed that there is likely to be a remodeling of the Commissariat or commissary officers in this state & I take the liberty of recommending to you Capt J. M. Bramham of Macon, Ga. for the position of Chief Enrolling or Commissary Officer for Georgia. Capt Bramham is a military man of some considerable experience & high qualifications. He was lately & perhaps at this time attached to the Staff of Major Genl J. M. Smith, Adjutant & Inspector, but owing to a difference in the views, he has found that he is not as useful in that capacity as he might be in the branch now suggested. I understand that he has asked to be transferred to the Commissariat service & that in this, the very strong recommendation of Genl J. M. Smith, Genl Cobb & others, Harris, now Chief Enrolling Officer of this State. Capt Bramham is very anxious to remain in the service, but perhaps considering that the move is much more useful in the Commissariat service than on the Staff of Genl J. M. Smith. I have known Capt Bramham for some time & can safely say that that there is no man more honest & thorough than living & few more

Sir,

I have the honor to make application through you to the proper Department for a transfer from the Adj. General's Dept. to the Bureau of Enscription in Georgia.

On reason of deafness, I find myself greatly embarrassed even in the discharge of office business, and am satisfied that I am wholly disqualified for active duty upon the field and in Camp.

The hearing in my left ear is almost entirely gone, and that of my right materially impaired, and gradually failing. But I do not desire to be discharged entirely from the service. I therefore apply for this transfer, thinking that I may be able to perform the duties that may be assigned me.

Col. Larkin Smith:

Dear Sir,

I understand that Mr. Braman Esq. has been proposed to you as a suitable person to collect the tax in kind in the Winchester congressional district.
I beg leave to say that I know Mr. Braman well and hardly know a better man.
Besides being a good lawyer and a good member of the Senate, he is a man of business habits and capacity generally.
If you find it consistent with your views of propriety to appoint him, I am confident that you will not be disappointed in him.

Very Respectfully
Charles M. Russell

Sir:

I scarcely know how any thing could be added, in addition to the earnest petition of Maj. Stevens, Quartermaster of this Port, and Adjutant Genl. Whitthorne, that you permit St. Davis to remain on detached duty in my office at Nashville.

These facts, however, I wish to call your earnest attention to.

1. That I cannot get a man to fill his place.
2. That his term of service has nearly expired.
3. His familiarity with the business, renders his services absolutely indispensable.

The Regiment certainly does not need his services now, or more now than formerly. St. Williams' place, I understand, has been filled. I can bring the strongest recommendation which you have ever read, why St. Davis should remain here - the officer of the Regiment for obvious reasons, & the contrary notwithstanding. I appeal to you to order him back, Your obd. Servant

Sir:

2d.

I did not know that you had issued orders that all Government Freight should be shipped on the M & O Road. I supposed, of course, that was the Route, and as I have just ordered the entire shipment on that Road - never thinking of sending the stores any other route, until I learned, as stated, from Memphis, that the goods could not be got through from Corinth on the M & O Road.

When first advised that the Road was open, I ordered the goods sent by the direct route - and that order was by Telegraph to Mr. Dechant, at Jackson Tenn.

If any man is to blame - that man is certainly not myself - I just having ordered the Shipment directly as you would have had it - directly, ordering that Section in order to forward goods expedite a Government Shipment - thereby having ordered goods, by the route, as first directed, so soon as advised that it was practicable.

Yours etc. etc.

Sir:

In reply to your Enquiry, embodied in Letter #199 dated Oct. 29th, I beg leave to state that when the Government goods (in question!) were shipped, I ordered them via St. Louis Mo: & Corinth Mississippi - to go thence by Mobile and Ohio R.R.

As I knew this was the direct route - and, of course, was the only one for the purpose of shipping by. I received, however, a dispatch from Capt. Hays, Superintendent of the Memphis and Chulahoma R.R., saying the M & O Road was blocked up by Government stores, & asking permission to ship the same via Grand Junction.

I gave him the permission - which was carrying out the instructions of Major G. H. Thomas Quartermaster for the States of Missouri, Kentucky, Arkansas & Tennessee - to effect that Government goods must go by the route deemed the shortest, without regard to disbursements. So soon, however, as I learned that the M & O Road was clear, I directed in October, 1861, that the goods by any route deemed the best - nothing avoided in the future from being sent by any route to which cars had not been returned in the last year or that did not run at that time.

Genl. A. S. Johnston
Decatur Ala

A young Gentleman by the name of Morgan, formerly and at present engaged as Clerk in this Department, reached Huntsville today, direct from Middle Tennessee. He brings reliable intelligence that the Enemy's Transports, nine in number, had passed Gainesboro, a little over two hundred miles on the River, above Nashville, on their way to Nashville Tenn, for the purpose of bringing down all the U.S. Forces on the Upper Cumberland.

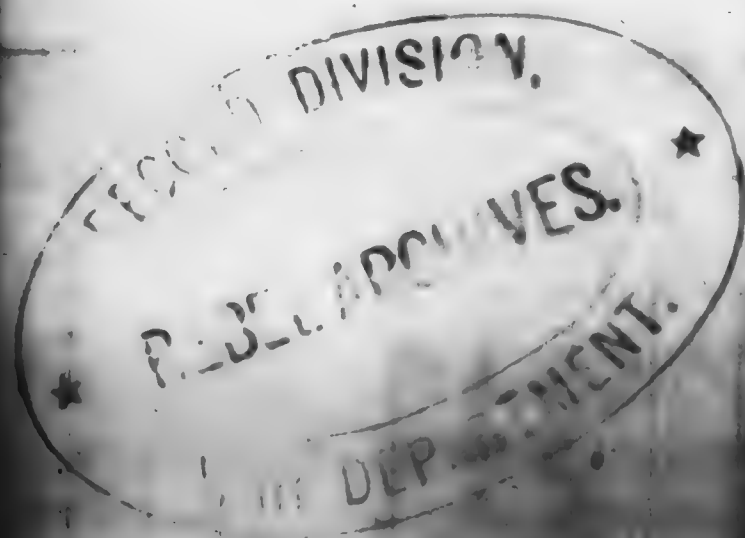

Agents of the U.S.A. were scattered all along the River collecting traps and obstacles. All manner of outrages were being committed along the River, north and east of Gainesboro, by the Rebels. Women were being burned - stock stolen and our soldiers, off on sick furlough, were arrested and carried into Ky. Regiments of U.S. Infantry, has been disbanded and formed into marauding bands; they prowled the country, robbing stores and pillaging and devastating the whole country.

General apprehension and alarm prevails all that who can leave, are fleeing from this place and are coming South. As the information brought by my informant, is from a section of country recently occupied by the Rebel army, and is now, unoccupied by any of our forces, there is much reason to believe that the same is true. Murfreesboro, Tenn: Nov: 24. 62

My dear Will,

I am going to make my first recommendation to the Dep^t and I desire your good offices in assisting it through.

Capt: J. S. Bransford has been connected with the Quaker Mission Dep^t for eighteen months. I have had occasion for quite twelve months of that time to transact business with him in transporting the sick &c, and I can say that a more efficient, active, energetic, faithful, intelligent & conscientious officer, I never saw. To day if I were going to select a Chief 2. M. for a Dep^t, I should unhesitatingly choose Capt. Bransford. He is one of the few Quaker Mission men I have seen who was fully alive to the care of the sick, & in his labors in that way, during our stay in Nashville, he has endeared himself to me beyond any other officer in his Dep^t of the Army. He was greatly esteemed by your excellent father, who, had he been spared, would long since have asked his promotion.

I trust you may find time to urge the Capt's claims. He is worthy of all you can say - of all you can do. He asks a Majority.

Yr. letters with welcome came safely to hand. Remember me very affectionately to your mother, Mrs D. - Lawson & your good wife.

And believe me, my dear Will,

Hon. Wm. H. Randolph
Secretary of War.

Sir: The official conduct of Captain John S. Brainerd, Assistant Quartermaster U.S.A., having attracted my attention, I beg leave to recommend his promotion, and to ask that he rank be raised to the position of Major in the Quartermaster's Department of the Confederate States Army. With your permission, I will state briefly my reasons for making the request.

In the first place: He has been actively and laboriously engaged in the Quartermaster's Department since his promotion from the rank, which has been ever since the war commenced.

In the second place: He was the first appointed to execute his duties as Assistant Quartermaster General in the Army of Tennessee; he was the first, in the States, to report for duty, and the first in Tennessee to execute an order.

In the third place: He is a young gentleman of strict sobriety, never having touched a drop of any kind of spirits since the war began - has energetically performed his whole duty at all times and all places - and everywhere his official conduct has given general satisfaction.

Captain Brainerd ranked as Major in the Quartermaster's Department of the Army of Tennessee. He is a young gentleman of good business education - having been engaged for several years past as a Wholesale Merchant in the cities of Nashville and Memphis, Tennessee. He had received previous to entering the Quartermaster's Department a thorough business training; and in consequence has acquired habits of application and industry.
His integrity of character is well known in Tennessee.

27711 who he has been associated with the most respectable and influential Commercial Firms in the South West.
Captain Mansford opened and had exclusive control of the Transportation office at Nashville Tenn., from the Commencement of the war until the city was evacuated. He was the last of the staff to leave the town, and the first to report for duty afterwards. He is attentive, courteous and efficient.

He comprehends the duties of the Department - understands Book Keeping - is systematic and practical in fact is a man of thorough business education.
He has been practically on my staff during the time I commanded the force in Middle Tennessee - and having witnessed his conduct and known his character as a business man, I have no hesitancy in recommending him as an officer, who by application and officiousness merits promotion.

From the Honor, therefore, & policy and interest of the War Department, his promotion to the rank of "Major and Quartermaster" in the Provisional Army of the Confederate States.

I am very Respectfully
Yours most obedt. Servt.

J. W. Mansford
Major General

I have however neglected to express my personal feelings in the above recommendations. I have known him long & personally and know him to be a dependable person of high character.

Amherstboro Nov. 17. 1862.

During all the time the late Genl. R. S. Johnston was in command of the Department of the West Capt. Braunsford served in the Quartermaster's Dept, under him - as chief staff officer of Genl. Johnston I had full opportunity of observing the manner in which he discharged his duties and am satisfied that all were well done - I know no more efficient officer and believe him fully entitled to leave his services to his promotion and that he will prove useful in any position in which he may be placed in the Dept.

W. W. MacKall.

Brig Genl

I had an opportunity, during the same period of observing the energy, zeal and efficiency of Capt. Braunsford which Genl. MacKall alludes to, and fully concurs with him in the estimate of the worth & abilities of Capt. Braunsford. It affords me pleasure to support my recommendation.

of Brigadier. He was early in the service, and has been constantly faithful. He controls himself well. He is a man of unbounded courage, as Shiloh, Murfreesboro, Chickamauga, Lookout, Missionary Ridge, Resaca and many minor fields will attest. He has a cool, calm head, and is always at his post. He is strictly temperate, & always vigilant in the discharge of his duty.
He is a man of great strength of mind, and while the General was wounded from his wounds, and while the General was suffering from his wounds.
He has been a very friend of the old Union, & of the Army, throughout the war, & against the secessionists, & against the secessionists. I have you to be a worthy Brigadier. I do not mean to say his reputation is out. I have a high regard for Col. Austin, but I do not know him at all. I do not know. Aside my friendship for Pringle, I think because of his physical superiority & executive qualities, he can be of more service than Austin, and therefore I would urge his appointment, and as you may be in quint of about Col. Pringle as well as Col. Austin, I have written what I know

Ad. On Walcott's Brigade, I am your Obedt. Servt. &c.
Army of Genl. Meade 31. Oct.

General,

I deem it to be my duty - & it is one which it gives me pleasure to perform - to recommend Colonel William F. Brant by 29th Miss. Regt. of this Brigade, for promotion to the rank of Brigadier General.

He served during the first year of the war as Major of 18th Miss. Regt. & in '62 as Capt. & Co. of 29th Miss. Regt. till December of that year, when he became its Colonel by my own promotion.

In the battle of Shiloh he commanded the Regiment to which he then belonged and was thrice severely wounded. He participated in the desperate assault which the Brigade to which he belonged, (Chalmers) made upon the enemy's works at Montfordville Ky. in September '62. In the battle of Murfreesboro (when he was again wounded) he commanded his Regiment - & also at Chickamauga, Lookout Mountain & Missionary Ridge.
At Shiloh & many others his conduct was Commended by his Superiors in qualified terms; & I regret that this paper can not pass through the hands of Major General Buckner to whose command he belonged at Shiloh - & of Major General Mitchell & Anderson, who were his Commanders at Memphis, to be strengthened by the weight of their testimony.

In the other actions named he was under my own eye, & his daring, skill & self pos-sion confirmed me in my already high estimate of him as an officer. He was as a drill officer & unsurpassed as a disciplinarian.
He has great force of Character & manly control over men - is an enlightened gentleman of sound judgment & his loyalty to the cause, & since the war began, has served gallantly & zealously to promote it. His services would be valuable as a Brigade Commander, & I trust the Government will look with favor upon his claims, which I respectfully but earnestly present.

It may not be improper to refer to the fact that Chui is, I am advised a vacant Brigade of Troops from Mississippi (a fellow state Col. Granting is a citizen) now on duty at Mobile - The same formerly commanded by this Genl.

Haltman.

I am, General, very respectfully Yrs. A. C. W.

 The following information is furnished to you
 Sir

I take great pleasure in recommending to your Surgeon B. L. Brewster of the Washington Artillery N. O. to receive the appointment to 1st Lieut. of Artillery. He has been serving as Ordnance Sergeant in the Washington Artillery since its entrance into service and as such assigned for duty with the 1st Body since that and connected with it until April 1862. I have had every opportunity of testing Lieut. Brewster's abilities and fitness for the office. I have no hesitation in saying that he is one of the best Artillery Officers I have seen in the service and I feel confident that no diligence or faithfulness on his part will be wanting to fulfill any duties to which he may

The General idea of the doctrine is, that an offer to cut off appears to be the only way to secure a permanent or permanent. It then is not to be made in the first place, but in a situation which will make her a second statement in her company. When I have had a chance to see I heartily recommend considering the system of promotion. But what is the result? I have not yet seen it. I have not yet seen it.

I recommend that the Battalion of Hottel's Battalion Washington, D. C., may be promoted to the grade of Captain, for annual duty, and assigned to duty as Ordnance Officer of that Battalion.
Brazelton has been with the Washington Battalion, as a Volunteer and Executive Sergeant, since its organization, some years ago, and is highly recommended for a commission by Col. Walton, and Col. E. J. Stander.
I have, for the past two years, been acquainted with the services, and business capacity of Sergeant Brazelton, and I know of no one

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th inst. in relation to the appointment of a person to the position of a clerk in the office of the Secretary of the Navy. Dear Sir, I am writing to you

15th March 1863

Dear Sir, I am writing to you

In a conversation with Col. Baldwin on this matter, I asked him if there was anything special in this case which made it exempt from the rules of the Dept. requiring all applicants for positions in the artillery for ordnance duties, to be examined. He said that Sgt. Mayhew being already in the Dept. as ordnance sergeant, he was of opinion that it should be regarded as a promotion not an original appointment.

The object of the Board of Examiners, as I thought, was to determine a man's fitness for the position sought. And as in this case Sgt. Mayhew had been performing duty as advanced officer, and as he was being induced by Col. Alexander and Baldwin to leave, recommendation with me is equivalent to having an examination before a Board - I did not regard it as necessary to the appointment, that he should be formally examined -

case does not seem to come within the provisions for promotion on account of extraordinary merit or that for Genl. has not made such a recommendation as would in my judgement

The following are the remarks of Genl. Maguire:

Col. Brasher is a gentleman of the highest integrity and education who has served with me in every battle I have been engaged in, except Bethel, without pay Proceedings of a Board of Survey, held at Houston, in obedience to the following Order

No. 32, District Court, at Houston, Texas, Dec. 2nd 1862

Special Order
No. 324

It is ordered that a Board composed of the following officers, do meet at Houston, for the purpose of examining into the alleged loss accruing to the Quartermaster's Department, in the transport of corn to other places where corn is sent; and to determine the loss on this corn while in transit.

Wm. J. McLaughlin, Quartermaster
Capt. J. McLaughlin, 1st Regt.
Capt. J. McLaughlin, 2nd Regt.
By command of
H. A. Smith, Major
Stephen D. Vanoy
S. D. Vanoy

The Board met, pursuant to the above order, Present, Wm. J. McLaughlin, Major
Capt. J. McLaughlin
Capt. J. McLaughlin

Coming to the scarcity of material, the Quartermaster is not able to furnish sacks in which to transport corn in sufficient quantities to meet the wants of the Army; and immense quantities of the same have, of necessity, to be received of the Planter in the market, and forwarded in the same way, being handled several times while in transit; and, in view of the fact, that the ordinary recourse when rail roads & steam boats are common can be had, in the riding state of the country.

By examination of specimens in various parts of the country, the Board finds, that corn shipped in the husk, contains a loss of Eight per cent, and that the same, when shipped in sacks, contains a loss of Five per cent, which is owing to the fact, that the sacks when obtained, are of such inferior quality, that they are unable to bear handling.

The Board therefore recommends that an order be issued, allowing the above percentage to the Quartermaster's Department, as wearage from wear and tear during transit.

Special Orders
No. 334

A Board, composed of the following Officers, is hereby ordered to convene at Houston, for the purpose of examining into the alleged losses accruing to corn in transit, from the various Plantations, to the Quartermaster's Dept. in Houston, and also to other places, where corn is sent, and to determine the loss on

The Board met, pursuant to the above Order -
Present,

Major J. C. Stafford
Capt. Brashear
Capt. J. F. Mullin

During to the scarcity of material in the Quartermaster's Dept. is not able to furnish sacks in which to transport corn in sufficient quantities
to meet the wants of the army; and immense quantities of the same, has, of necessity, to be secured of the Planter in the State, and forwarded in the same way - being han-
view of the fact, that the ordinary recourse upon Rail Roads, Steam Boats, &c. common Carriers cannot be had, in the existing state of the country

By examination of Shipment in various parts of the country, the Board finds, that corn shipped in the State, sustains a loss of Fifty per cent, and that the same, when shipped in sacks, sustains a loss of Twenty per cent, which is owing to the fact, that the sacks when obtained are of a most inferior quality, that they are unable to bear handling

The Board therefore recommends, that an order be issued, allowing the above percentage to the Quartermaster Department, as wastage from wear and tear, during transit -

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 6th September - which I am glad to hear is much better than before.

Mr. Williams is a well known and experienced, in the business of his country, and as a soldier, would strongly recommend him for advancement but he merits it more particularly, for gallant conduct in battle.

At Seven Pines, he was one of the leaders in the intrepid and irresistible charge of the 2nd Brigade Longstreet's Division, which encountered and beat a greatly superior force of the enemy, in four successive combats, driving them two miles from their first line of battle.

Throughout the whole action he was conspicuous, for skill and courage; coolness and good management. At the close of the fight and last encounter, he received a very severe wound through the arm and shoulder.

His conduct excited my admiration, and I am happy to perform this rather tardy act of justice. I am very respectfully

Dear Sir

Permit me to call your attention to the recommendation of Col. John Beallan & the other anti-secessionists, now under Major General, Butler's command in Virginia. When you propose to take another Brigade of General, I am sure, I cannot make your sending to the strong terms in which Col.
Beallan is recommended by his commanding General for promotion.
Col. Beallan is well known to me. He is a grandson of Col.
Beallan who surprised and defeated the British & Louis under Hook in York District South Carolina during the revolution.
The present Colonel Beallan was cast in the antique mould & reminds me of Plutarch's men. He has had an army lead by such officers as Beallan & might be destroyed but could never be driven in rout.

The President of The C.S.A.

Sir,

We herewith present the application of Major Braxton asking to be assigned to Gen. Anderson's corps court. - Whome known Major B. from his school days - He is a true patriot, and a gentleman of character and intelligence. He is a lawyer by profession, & at the beginning of the war was engaged in a good practice. His residence was Fredericksburg & he has lost the most of his property & has a large family to support. He is well qualified for the duties of the position he seeks & shall be much gratified to hear he has received the appointments.

Hon. James A. Seddon
Secretary of War

Sir,

I learn that Major E. M. Braxton 2nd of Cooke's Brigade & Heth's Division C. S. A. is an applicant for an appointment to the Military Court attached to Genl. R. H. Anderson's Corps.
I have known Major Braxton for more than 20 years as a gentleman of intelligence and honorable character. For some years he was a member of the Virginia State Senate, and for nearly or quite 20 years he was engaged in practicing law. He entered the military service of the country in the first year of the war, and has continued in it ever since. He has experienced very considerable losses from the enemy, and has a family dependent on his exertions. If appointed to the position he seeks, he will doubtless perform his duty with fidelity & efficiency.

Sir.

I recommend to your favorable attention Maj. Elliot Braxton, who applies for a position in the Military Court in Genl Hill's Corps - He is now 2^d Lt in Cook's Brigade - There are two vacancies in that Corps.

He is a lawyer, a Christian gentleman, and unites with these high qualities as a man and a soldier the experience he has had in the field.

You know him, and his character too well however for me to elaborate his qualifications.
He would make an excellent Judge in one of these Courts.

I am very respectfully
Yours ob. Serv.

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf of a book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with numerous small dark spots, possibly foxing or dirt, scattered across its surface. There are also faint vertical creases and a slightly irregular right edge, suggesting it is part of a bound volume. The overall tone is a light, off-white or cream color.
